I want to travel next month in november, what places can I go to hang out with friends?

Travel Assistant

For a fabulous November trip with friends, consider exploring Solvang Julefest in Southern California. This is an annual Christmas celebration that takes place from late November through early January in the charming Danish village of Solvang. The town comes alive during this time and offers various festive activities such as a tree lighting ceremony, parade, candlelight tours, hot chocolate, carol singing, dancing floats, marching bands, shopping at unique stores, dining in local eateries serving Danish delicacies, gnome hunting adventures and lots more. You can also check out the Solvang Christmas market on Saturdays leading up to Christmas for some holiday shopping or just enjoy a stroll amidst the festive decorations.

Based on the data collected from on the travel blog post - 13+ Ways to Celebrate Julefest - Solvang Christmas 2023 \(theplaceswherewego.com\)

Here's how you can plan your trip to Solvang, California for Julefest. You can reach there via airplane from Los Angeles International Airport (LAX) or San Francisco International Airport (SFO). The drive takes about two hours and forty-five minutes through scenic mountains and valleys. Once in town, enjoy a variety of holiday events including the Christmas parade, light shows, tree-lighting ceremony, gnome scavenger hunt, shopping at local boutiques selling European treasures like clocks, antique finds & cookware, plus meet Santa Claus for photos! The Julefest runs every year from late November through early January. Make sure to check the official city websites for dates and events before your travel.

Celebrate Julefest at Solvang – Christmas Danish Style

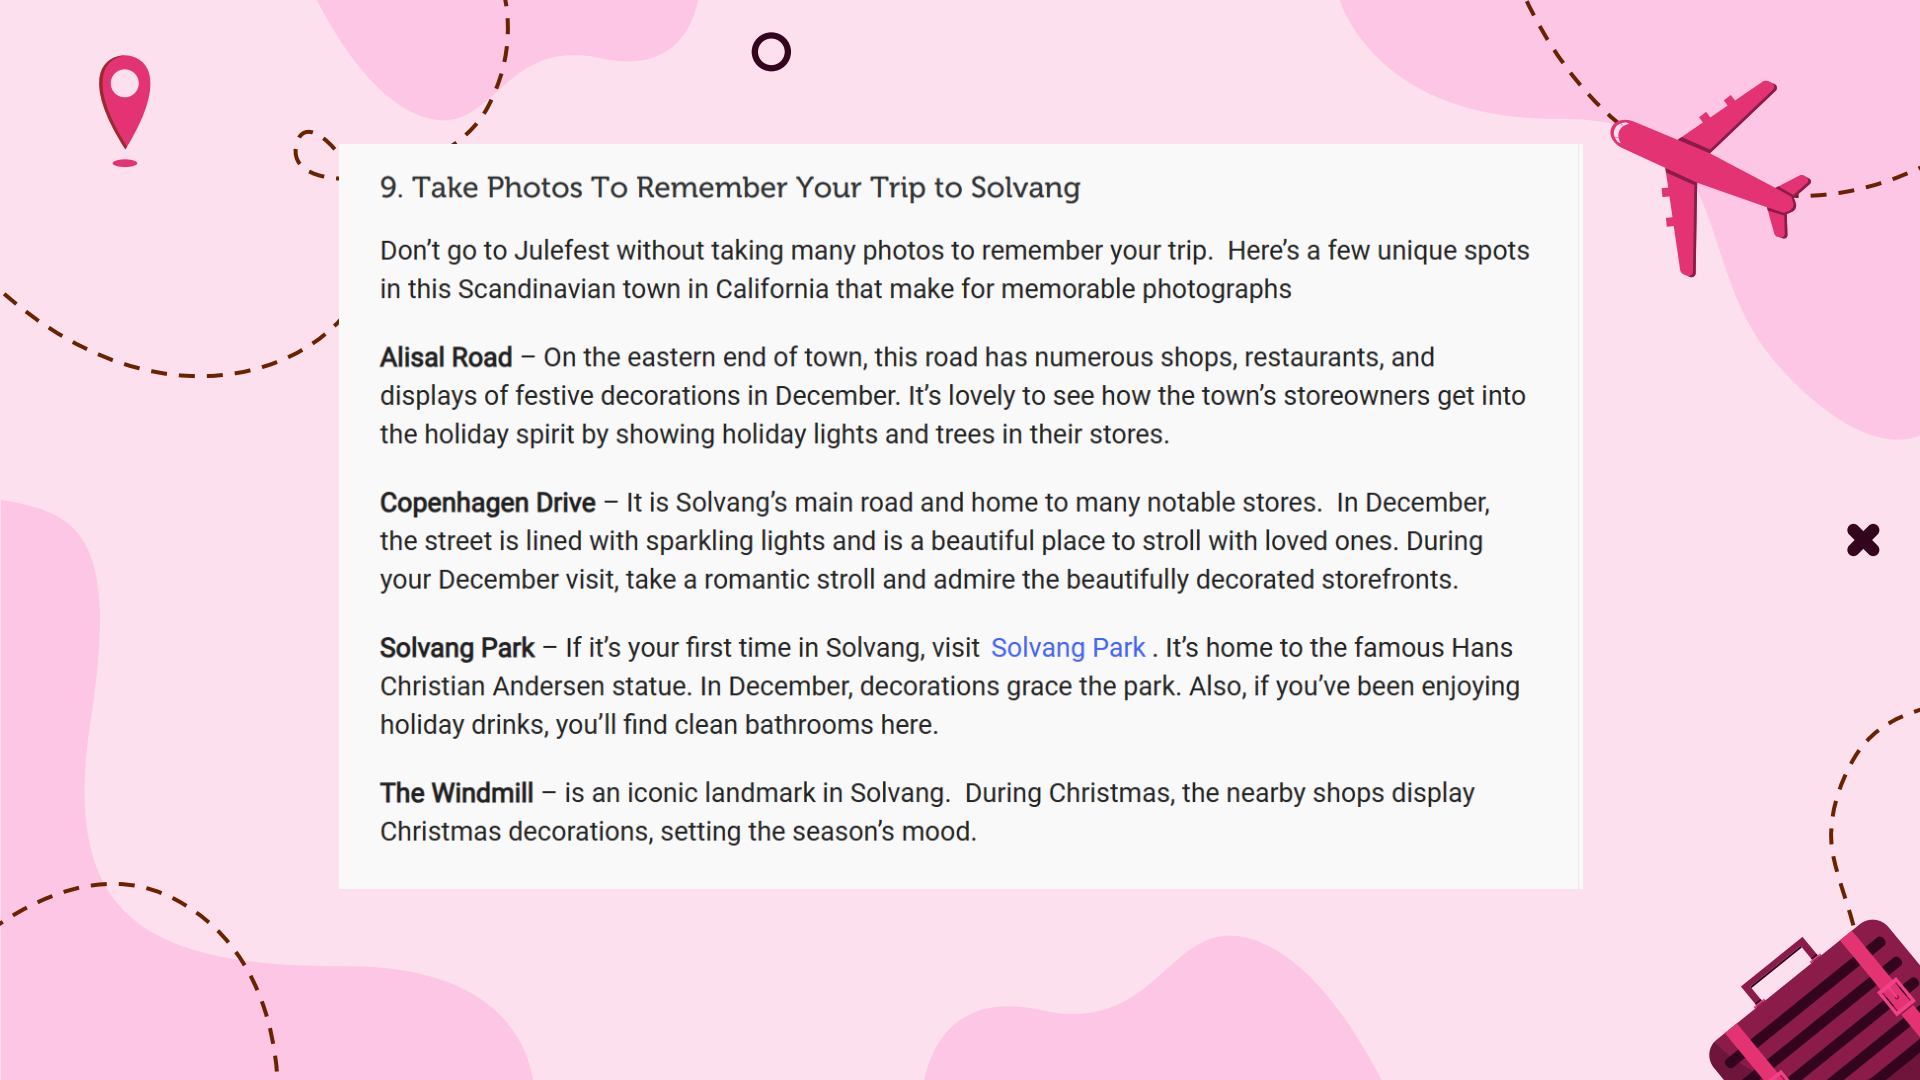

Solvang, California, is known as one of the ten best winter holiday towns in the United States. Visit here in December for Solvang Christmas 2023, and you'll quickly understand why. Readers Digest confirmed this reputation by calling Solvang the "Best Christmas Town in California."

The annual Solvang Julefest 2023 celebration returns on Friday, November 24, 2023, and runs through Friday, January 5, 2024.

The Danish Village abounds with the Christmas spirit in December as Julefest is celebrated with festive decorations, Christmas music, and holiday cheer. Enjoy a Christmas parade, marvel at the sparkling Christmas lights, and shop for unique gifts. The magic of Christmas shines around every corner in this Southern California gem that brings us to Northern European Christmas traditions.

Even though Santa Barbara County doesn't receive snowfall, add a sprinkle of cultural joy and holiday spirit. Make your plans to celebrate Christmas in Solvang. This incredible Dutch city in California becomes one of the most beautiful places in the state to celebrate Christmas.

9. Take Photos To Remember Your Trip to Solvang

Don't go to Julefest without taking many photos to remember your trip. Here's a few unique spots in this Scandinavian town in California that make for memorable photographs

Alisal Road – On the eastern end of town, this road has numerous shops, restaurants, and displays of festive decorations in December. It's lovely to see how the town's storeowners get into the holiday spirit by showing holiday lights and trees in their stores.

Copenhagen Drive – It is Solvang's main road and home to many notable stores. In December, the street is lined with sparkling lights and is a beautiful place to stroll with loved ones. During your December visit, take a romantic stroll and admire the beautifully decorated storefronts.

Solvang Park – If it's your first time in Solvang, visit Solvang Park. It's home to the famous Hans Christian Andersen statue. In December, decorations grace the park. Also, if you've been enjoying holiday drinks, you'll find clean bathrooms here.

The Windmill – is an iconic landmark in Solvang. During Christmas, the nearby shops display Christmas decorations, setting the season's mood.
